

Social Responsibilities

Written by Terence Coleman

Thursday, 29 October 2009 15:46 - Last Updated Saturday, 28 April 2012 07:38

Mantecorp currently contributes a portion of its revenue to Johannesburg Child Welfare Society to assist in the alleviation of poverty and creation of jobs. We are committed to the support and provision of much needed foster care and re-integration of those special members of our community and subsequently fulfilling dreams.

If you would like to participate in this program click here to visit Johannesburg Child Welfare Society

We are presently recruiting our Streetball team. If you are interested, send an email indicating your area of interest to: streetball@wikiglobal.net